

HORSE-RACING METHOD.

Proposition of an Australian to Run the New York Turf.

An Australian racing millionaire who, at his home, is said to be a veritable king of the turf, has made a sensational proposition to August Belmont, who is now at the head of Eastern racing interests. Mr. Belmont, for some reason, refuses to give the name of the Australian, but says he is now in New York and his name will be made public soon. This visitor's plan is to merge the New York race tracks into a trust, he hoping thereby to secure absolute control of the sport in the State, if not in the East. When asked what changes he contemplated, in case a trust was hatched up, he replied:

"Let's begin right at the top. Your system of stewardship is all wrong. I understand your stewards conduct the racing, and are the responsible heads. No race track managers should occupy the office of steward. Your so-called gentlemen stewards are failures. Gentlemen cannot afford to waste the time to be competent stewards. I shall in this country, or send home for one, and place him on the inside of the track, so that he may look right down over the field as it approaches the finish. Stewards on the outside can see nothing. He will be responsible for the proper conduct of the racing, and will be so well paid that he will be satisfied to devote all his time and attention to the racing. I shall allow no one to interfere with his duties."

"I shall appoint one judge, who shall know nothing but that his eye is perfect and that he can place four horses in every race without question or doubt. He shall remain in his box alone. The hand-capping will be done by a committee of one, and only one. If one man cannot be found to make a good handicapper we would better quit the whole racing business. Handicaps are accidents, in my opinion, and one man will do about as well as another, with the understanding, of course, that he is a practical man with some judgment."

"Of the betting I shall certainly take no notice. I shall not interfere with it on the tracks, but I will open rooms in this city for the transaction of business. Whatever is done shall be open and above board. I do not believe in whipping the devil around the stump. There shall be all the cash betting on the tracks which the public may desire, and settlements shall be made at the city rooms."

"The system of starting in this country is old-fashioned and ridiculous. It is unfair to the supporters of the turf. We have a machine which gives entire satisfaction, and I expect to have it in use upon every track with which I have become connected. I would not give one machine for 100 of the best starters this world ever saw."

Maid of Hawaii, are we part
Give me back, not my heart,
But that shining diamond ring,
Bracelet, earring, everything
That I thought and gave to you,
When our summer love was new.
Give them back, and I will fit,
Find another whom they'll fit.
While in Brown & Kube's store
You can buy a few dozen more.

THE BEST TREATMENT FOR CHOLERA—When promptly and properly treated a recovery is almost certain. This was fully demonstrated during the prevalence of Cholera in New York in 1865. Go to bed as soon as the first symptoms appear, remain as quiet as possible, and take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in double doses until the pain ceases, and then after each operation of the bowels more than natural. Send for a physician, but take this remedy in this way until he arrives. The remedy should be kept at hand ready for instant use. It should be taken within five minutes after the first symptoms appear. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the most successful medicine that has yet been produced, not only for the milder forms of bowel complaint, but for the most virulent forms of Asiatic Cholera. BROKE THE GLASS.

Story of a Dude Who Tried to Kiss His Own Reflection.

A clerk in the Government service, who is both pretty and what the conner, in speaking of a corpse, calls well nourished, stood in front of the office mirror the other day admiring his image.

"Ah, but I'm a good thing," said he, "and if I keep on smoking these cigarettes with gold leaf ends, long enough, I believe I'll have nicely gilded teeth."

"Then what a charming appearance I'll make when I laugh."

"There is most certainly no one in Honolulu who is my equal for beauty and grace."

"Alas! for the poor girls; I hate to break hearts, but I see no way to avoid it. My fatal, fatal loveliness."

"Oh, you dear!" addressing his reflection, "I could kiss you—I could—and I will."

Here he leaned so far forward that, in the excess of his affection for himself, he rammed his head through the looking glass and gashed his face up so that all traces of personal charm were obliterated.

Moral: Beauty is only skin deep, and a homely face is better than a sore head.
